

Emma McGovern Selected To Attend 2010 USYS ODP Region III Camp

Emma McGovern, of the '94 NDSL Lady Sidekicks, has received the honor of being selected by the North Carolina Olympic Development Program (ODP) staff, to the final NC player pool. The pool consists of the top players from across the state of North Carolina, selected through a 6 month tryout and training process. Emma has also been invited to represent North Carolina and participate in USYS Region III ODP camp at The University of Montevallo, in Montevallo Alabama, July 5th – July 10th.

This is the second consecutive year Emma has received this honor. She will play with the NC '95 team and compete against the top players from across Region III. USYS ODP Region III consists of 11 southeastern states from Texas in the west to North Carolina in the east, and is tasked with identifying the top youth soccer players in the region for future National team consideration.

