

NDSL Player Selected To ODP Region III Camp

Emma McGovern of the '94 NDSL Lady Sidekicks, has received the honor of being selected by the North Carolina Olympic Development Program staff, to the final NC player pool. The pool consists of the top players from across the state of North Carolina, selected through a lengthy tryout process. Emma has also been invited to represent North Carolina and participate in Region III ODP camp at The University of Montevallo, in Montevallo Alabama, July 5th – July 9th. She will play with the NC '95 team and compete against the top players from across Region III. USYS ODP Region III consists of 11 southeastern states from Texas in the west to North Carolina in the east, and is tasked with identifying the top youth soccer players in the region, for National Team consideration. Congratulations Emma, we know the NDSL will be well represented in Alabama!

